OUTFITTERS

EXPO

THE FESTIVAL

For thirteen years the Lookout Wild Film Festival has brought the best outdoor adventure and conservation films from around the world to Chattanooga for one awesome weekend.

Enjoy compelling stories that celebrate wild places and the people they inspire alongside hundreds of other adventure enthusiasts from around the Southeast.

GEARHEAD OUTFITTERS EXPO

Lookout Wild is excited to partner with Gearhead Outfitters for the first ever Outfitters Expo. This free to the public event is Saturday and Sunday from noon until 8:00 p.m. This is your chance to check out the hottest new gear and products for 2025 from some of the best brands in the outdoor industry. Whether you're a hardcore adventurer, a weekend warrior, or just someone who loves the great outdoors, this event is for you.

HOST CITY

Chattanooga serves as an ideal host for a film festival dedicated to outdoor adventure and recreation. Chattanooga's geography and natural formations are home to numerous outdoor sporting activities for its residents and visitors who live very active lifestyles.

Having Chattanooga as a backdrop to the wonderful films being shown at the festival continues to help the city serve as inspirational ground for discovering the wild outdoors!

LWFF takes place on the ancestral lands of the Tsalaguwetiyi (Cherokee, East); Shawandasse Tula (Shawawaki/Shawnee) and S'atsoyaha (Yuchi) peoples.

Professional outdoor guides share their mental and physical struggles while celebrating the guiding profession. They reflect on how The Redside Foundation fosters connection and support within their community. (19 MIN)

IT WILL BE DIFFERENT FOR YOU

Lea Davison, a two-time Olympian and one of America's most decorated mountain bikers, sees her journey in the sport as one of self-discovery and love beyond competition. Her evolution unlocked a passion to challenge barriers and inequities, inspiring her to create a better future for the next generation of female riders. (18 MIN)

FEATURE

DESIGNED BY DISASTER

Designed by Disaster tells the story of Danny, a climber whose near-fatal ordeal in the Dolomites inspired him to create a groundbreaking crampon, revolutionizing mountain safety. Decades later, his return to the Dolomites with his invention symbolizes resilience, self-discovery, and a full-circle moment. (20 MIN)

FRIDAY EVENING

CANAFORNIA

Welcome to Canafornia, a surreal world of big hits and unpredictable weather, accessible only by a psychic elevator and the right gear for any conditions. Join Eddie Reynolds as he tackles dust, loam, air—and, unexpectedly, Lego. (2 MIN)

RHYTHM

This visually stunning film celebrates the beauty and wonder of water, following its natural rhythms in an inspiring cycle of life. (3 MIN)

SLIDING

A female athlete skips the crowded ski slopes to traverse the Swiss Alps on her sled... headfirst. (4 MIN) 🧡

UNSEEN PEAKS

After enduring discrimination and trauma due to her blindness, Addie seeks freedom through skiing, ice climbing, and rock climbing, facing both the challenges of these activities and the need for acceptance within the outdoor community as a disabled person. (7 MIN)

DON'T DOUBT THE TROUT

Bernard and Rebecca of Par Avion combine their passion for surf rock, fly fishing, and conservation as advocates for California's endangered Steelhead trout. Working with CalTrout, they document the health of Southern California's waterways, including efforts to remove Malibu's Rindge Dam, slated for demolition between 2028 and 2035. (13 MIN)

PARTY IN THE PUEBLO

Party in the Pueblo showcases 24 hours in the Old Pueblo, a lively mountain bike race in Southern Arizona where a pop-up town hosts 24 hours of fun and competition. Riders tackle a 16-mile loop, completing as many laps as possible in a celebration of endurance and community. (13 MIN)

THE HAGENS

Professional freeride skiers Stian Hagen and Andrea Binning balance their adventurous lifestyle with raising their two children, Camila and Aksel. This film explores how their parenting choices have shaped a family where outdoor sports and adventure remain at the heart of their lives. (23 MIN)

TRASH PANDA

Trash Panda captures the journey of aging climber Mike Adair as he restores a forgotten boulder field while reclaiming his climbing prowess. Set in Sand Rock, Alabama, it's a snapshot of his life, passion, and determination to set the hardest routes once again. (23 MIN)

INTERMISSION (15 MIN)

GIRLS RIDING HIGH

Set in Alaska's stunning Kenai Mountain Turnagain Arm National Heritage Area, Girls Riding High follows 19-year-old mountain biker Lucy Hankins as she leads young girls on a transformative 25-mile overnight bike trip. Against the backdrop of a youth addiction and mental health crisis, this inspiring documentary highlights how Lucy's program uses adventure and nature to build confidence, resilience, and a brighter future for Alaska's youth. (26 MIN) 🧡

DROPPING MOLLY

Dropping Molly follows trad climber Molly Mitchell on her multi-year quest to achieve a daring all-gear ascent of the perilous Crank-it (5.13+ R/X) in Boulder Canyon. Directed by Cedar Wright, this gripping film explores Molly's physical injuries, mental health struggles, and bold spirit in a journey that is as intense as it is inspiring. (30 MIN)

FEATURE

CLIMBING NEVER DIE

Climbing journalist Matt Groom journeys deep into war-torn Ukraine to discover a community held together by climbing and patriotism, but indelibly changed by war. (38 MIN)

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

NEITHER HERE, NOR THERE

Set on the picturesque Isle of Mull, this film captures moments of exploration, conversation, and local life, featuring Joe, the deputy harbour master in Tobermory. A short poem, written during the visit and read by a local woman, adds a heartfelt touch to this intimate portrayal of the island's charm. (2 MIN) 🎬

SURFING IN RIVERS BEFORE THEY DISAPPEAR

As a landlocked surfer, river surfing has become a perfect way to catch endless waves in the mountains. However, with these unique waves at risk of disappearing forever, this film follows the quest to ride them while they still break. (17 MIN) 🎬

109 BELOW

109 Below tells the gripping story of elite rescue volunteers braving Mount Washington's extreme conditions in 1982 to save two climbers. This harrowing event not only reshaped the lives of those involved but also revolutionized the future of prosthetics. (14 MIN)

TWO POINT FOUR

This is no ordinary family holiday, as Leo Houlding, his wife Jess, and their young children Freya (9) and Jackson (5) take on Norway's national mountain. Together, they scale a 2000-foot big wall, redefining adventure as a family. (20 MIN)

THE MAGIC OF FREEDOM

Join five paragliding pilots in Pakistan's Karakoram mountains as they use mystical air currents to ski, climb, and explore some of the world's most stunning landscapes. Alongside local pilots, they embrace the freedom of the skies while pushing their limits higher than ever before. (35 MIN)

INTERMISSION (15 MIN)

SATURDAY EVENING

BANDIT HILL

In a world that feels so heavy, it's hard to find things that lighten the mood, bring joy, and make you smile. But, if you look hard enough, try hard enough, and tap deep into your imagination, places of magic still exist. Places like Bandit Hill. (4 MIN)

WHITNEY

A brief chance to climb the highest peak in the lower 48 becomes a personal test for someone seeking to challenge themselves. This is a story about the pursuit of difficulty for its own sake and the growth found in the attempt. (6 MIN)

OASIS

Oasis is an exploration into the spirit of freeride mountain biking. We follow Reed Boggs as he discovers, builds, and rides a top to bottom Red Bull Rampage style line in the remote southern Utah desert. (4 MIN)

IAN

IAN is an inspiring short film about 72-year-old Australian rock climber Ian Elliott, who defies age by achieving incredible climbing feats, including a grade 28 (7c/5.12d) just before turning 70. His journey celebrates the resilience of the human spirit, proving it's never too late to push boundaries and pursue passions. (8 MIN)

ABOVE SINAI

This film follows Sarah Sadek, an Egyptian professional kiteboarder breaking barriers on the Sinai Peninsula, where women are rarely seen in athletic roles or on the water. Growing up in Cairo, Sarah discovered kiteboarding in Dahab's lagoons, overcoming cultural pushback to become a top global competitor and an inspiration for her local community, redefining what's possible with grace and grit. (13 MIN)

SVALBARD

Elite kayaker Aniol Serrasolses journeys deep into the Arctic to pursue his dream of kayaking over the world's largest ice waterfall. In Norway's Svalbard archipelago, he and his team navigate treacherous glacial cliffs and icy landscapes to access the fleeting glacial rivers that cascade from immense heights into the sea. (19 MIN)

CANYON CHORUS

Set in Utah's Desolation Canyon, this film follows Mikah Meyer, a world-record traveler and LGBTQ+ advocate, as he reflects on the power of mentorship with three friends and his mentor, Larry Edwards. Through heartfelt conversations and shared joy on the river, they explore the impact of their friendship, Larry's fight for openness within the queer community, and his reflections on finding peace in life's final chapter. (17 MIN)

THE PUZZLE

Harrington tackles an unfinished project on the remote and towering Chinese Puzzle Wall, honoring the memory of her former partner, Marc-André LeClerc. (18 MIN)

INTERMISSION (15 MIN)

DROP THE MIC

Eliot Jackson is a trailblazer in mountain biking, celebrated for his exceptional riding, engaging event commentary, and meaningful advocacy work. On and off the bike, he inspires and uplifts the sport, leaving a lasting impact. (2 MIN)

STILL ALIVE

Klaas Willems, a rock climber with Cystic Fibrosis, overcame incredible odds after being told he wouldn't live past 25, dedicating himself to climbing in clean-air locations like Sardinia. Following a battle with cancer and depression, he drew strength from his sister's positivity and returned to Sardinia to complete "Still Alive (5.14b)," a testament to resilience and the power of the human spirit. (27 MIN) 🏆

CROSSING DREAMS

World Champion François Ragolski embarks on a remarkable 60-day solo paragliding journey across Tajikistan, Pakistan, India, and Nepal, soaring over some of the planet's most remote and breathtaking landscapes. Facing constant challenges with an incredible attitude, François experiences unforgettable highs and lows in this extraordinary adventure. (34 MIN)

FEATURE

A LITTLE BIT DIFFERENT

A Little Bit Different follows Afghan refugees and U.S. teens on a transformative rafting expedition through Idaho's Main Salmon River, where they navigate challenges and form deep connections. With stunning visuals and heartfelt storytelling, the film explores community, identity, and belonging, showcasing the unifying power of nature and shared human experiences. (35 MIN) 🏆

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

MY FIRST TRIATHLON

Triathlons don't have to be intimidating, as shown by Maximus (5) and Miles (8) in their first triathlon adventure. This heartwarming film captures the joy of the journey, complete with beach play and popsicles, proving that fun is the ultimate finish line. (5 MIN) 🧊

GIRLS WHO WANNA SURF

Girls Who Wanna Surf is a heartwarming documentary short that captures a group of women taking on their first waves, as well as the community who rallied behind them. (15 MIN) 🎓 🏆

USUGILIX AWAKUN

In the waters near Unalaska, Alaska, toxic algal blooms threaten shellfish, a vital cultural food, prompting Unanga̅ scientist Shayla to lead her tribe's research into the blooms' causes and solutions. Usugilix Awakun highlights the deep bond between the Unanga̅ people and their environment, showcasing their resilience in confronting these urgent ecological challenges. (11 MIN)

TARAS

Former snowboarder Taras Bihus traded competition for service, volunteering for the Ukrainian military. After months on the front lines, an old injury brought him home, where he now seeks solace in nature as he navigates the challenges of reintegration and the uncertainty of being called back to war. (12 MIN)

NATURE ALWAYS FINDS A WAY

The story of five women who boldly embark on a ten day trek with total strangers to conquer the iconic Tour du Mont Blanc. Their goal? To heal their past traumas, together. An uplifting tale of reliance, female friendship and the incredible power of using nature and community to heal and forge a brighter future. (12 MIN)

SAVING SEAGRASS

This film dives into the hidden world of seagrass in Mobile Bay, a crucial habitat brimming with life. The film underscores the importance of preserving this ecosystem for the health of the bay and the communities and industries that depend on it. (15 MIN)

META, FEMALE PIONEERS IN MOUNTAINEERING

In 1870, Meta Brevoort defied societal norms by nearly summiting La Meije, a feat many deemed impossible, despite falling just short of the true peak due to an impassable ridge. Modern climber Maria Granberg retraces Brevoort's steps, celebrating her groundbreaking achievements and uncovering the legacy of a pioneering woman in alpinism. (20 MIN)

BEYOND THE FINISH LINE

Beyond the Finish Line follows Marisa Pasnick as she trains for the grueling Bigfoot 200 while confronting the challenges of an eating disorder. Her story highlights resilience, the ongoing nature of recovery, and the importance of community support in destigmatizing eating disorders. (16 MIN)

UNDAMMED

Undammed follows Yurok tribal attorney Amy Bowers Cordalis as she fights to restore her ancestral Klamath River, devastated by generations of dam destruction. From testifying before Congress to sharing fishing traditions with her children, Amy's journey embodies hope as the dams come down and her tribe's future brightens. (17 MIN)

FEATURE

THE GRAND SALMON

The Grand Salmon documents the 1,000-mile journey of three women paddling to recreate the migration of wild salmon to the Pacific Ocean. Along the route's eight dams, they witness the challenges salmon face and explore urgent solutions to restore these vital populations. (56 MIN)

SHADOWS IN THE UNDERSTORY

Shadows in the Understory follows Dillon Butcher's fluid and masterful riding through a local jump spot, capturing the seamless transition of seasons in a single, artfully filmed ride. The film celebrates his skill and the beauty of the ever-changing natural world. (4 MIN)

THE CAREIST

The Careist is an ode to Max Hutchison, a naturalist and lifelong advocate for the endangered wetlands between the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, designated as the United States' 15th International Wetland of Importance. This film honors his dedication and highlights the urgent need to preserve these disappearing ecosystems. (10 MIN)

THE RIVER COWBOY

Since 1996, a dedicated man in Eastern Kentucky has worked to remove tires from the wild and scenic Red River. Nearly three decades later, his efforts have inspired friends, environmental groups, and community members to join annual cleanups and prevent trash from polluting the river. (10 MIN)

THE OLD MEN OF THE MOUNTAIN

The Old Men of the Mountain follows the oldest running team in the U.S., led by 103-year-old George Etzweiler, as they compete in a 50-mile relay in Pennsylvania. Comprised of runners aged 65 and up, the team proves that age is just a number as they focus on moving forward together, both physically and as friends. (15 MIN) 🧑🏻‍🦵

MOVING MOUNTAINS

A young Black man from Tulsa, Oklahoma, discovers peace on a remote Hawaiian island through nature and big wave surfing. What once seemed like a futile pursuit becomes his lifeline, grounding him amidst life's challenges. (21 MIN) 🏄🏻‍♂️

FEEL IT ALL

Feel It All follows professional skier Drew Petersen's journey from battling suicidal depression to finding strength through running and skiing the peaks of the Leadville Trail 100 ultramarathon. The film aims to change the conversation around mental health and break the stigma surrounding suicide. (34 MIN)

INTERMISSION (15 MIN)*NORTH CHICKAMAUGA CREEK CONSERVANCY

NCCC invites you to explore the beauty of the pristine gorge only twenty minutes from downtown Chattanooga. This film showcases the juxtaposition between the chaotic urban environment and the tranquil serenity that the North Chickamauga Creek Gorge provides. (5 MIN)

MEETING WITH THE CLOUDS

Meeting with the Clouds follows a group of slackliners in Leysin, Switzerland, as they traverse highlines between the iconic Tour d'Aï and Tour de Mayen. Amidst stunning views of Lake Geneva, the film highlights their camaraderie, dedication, and resilience in overcoming challenges like weather and logistics to savor the thrill of bridging mountains. (32 MIN) 🧗🏻
